

THE ANDREW D. WASHINGTON HBCU SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Sponsored by AFSCME District Council 20

OVERVIEW

The late Andrew D. Washington served as Executive Director for AFSCME District Council 20 from 2014-2020. Educated in the DC Public School system, he received a scholarship to and attended Johnson C. Smith University-a HBCU (Historically Black Colleges and Universities) in Charlotte, NC. A true trade unionist, he worked as a tireless advocate, fighting for the rights of working men and women in the District of Columbia and Virginia’s municipalities, the Federal Government, and private sectors. His long-standing union commitment and activism earned him the opportunity to attend Harvard University’s Trade Union Program. Accepted Documents

Any one of the following documents is considered acceptable proof of enrollment:

- A transcript or course list showing the courses you are enrolled in for dates that include the fall semester 2024. A transcript in .txt format is NOT acceptable. A transcript marked "Unofficial Transcript" will suffice from most institutions.

 - be on school letterhead;
 - display a school seal or logo; and
 - contain a signature and phone number or email address of a representative from the admissions office.
- Proof that you have accepted an offer to attend an eligible post-secondary academic program for a semester/grading period starting on or before September 30, 2024. You must include an acceptance offer letter and show proof that you have accepted the offer. The acceptance letter must:
 - be on school letterhead;
 - display a school seal or logo; and
 - contain a signature and phone number or email address of a representative from the admissions office.

Other proof that you are enrolled in a post-secondary academic program for the first semester/trimester of 2024. There are many different types of forms that can show this, but the key is to be sure the proof has your name, school name, and a recent date on it. Examples include:

- A semester class schedule or syllabus for this time period;
- A receipt showing you paid for this time period;
- A letter showing your scholarship/financial aid etc. covers this time period.
